

ARE YOU A STUDENT AND A CAREGIVER?

Come join us for pizza and conversation!

When:

Wednesday, Feb. 7th
5:00-6:30

Where:

Queen Anne's Lounge,
Campus Y

What should I expect?

An informal, come-as-you-are drop-in session of pizza-eating. We want to learn what student caregivers would like to see at Carolina, and how students can support each other. If you don't have time to spare, no worries. Just introduce yourself, leave a name and contact, and grab a slice to go!

Who should come?

We don't know how many students at Carolina are caregivers for their parents, grandparents, siblings, or other family members, but we know that you are out there, and we know how difficult and rewarding it can be to do what you do.

If you find yourself trying to cope with balancing being a student with being a caregiver, join us on the 7th or get in touch with us!

We are:

Possibly a new student group, convened by Prof. Olson (eaolson@email.unc.edu) and student caregiver LauraKathryn Smith (bookendcare@gmail.com)
